PARTICIPANT AGREEMENT · ISRAEL

Terms & Conditions

Luxury & Private Departures · Effective October 1, 2026

This document combines the three agreements that apply to every participant registering for a Biblical Expeditions luxury or private Israel departure on or after October 1, 2026. By signing it in WeTravel, the participant agrees to all three parts.

1. Part 1 – Participant Terms & Conditions (applies to all Biblical Expeditions trips)
2. Part 2 – Israel Cancellation & Refund Policy, Luxury & Private Departures (Israel-specific supplement)
3. Part 3 – Israel Refund & Travel Credit Policy Participant Acknowledgment

Order of precedence: for the registration and payment schedule, participant cancellations, cancellations and postponements by Biblical Expeditions, travel credits, refund processing and payment disputes, Part 2 controls where it conflicts with Part 1. All other provisions of Part 1 continue to apply to Israel trips.

*Payment schedule subject to change at the discretion of Biblical Expeditions, LLC. Payment due dates are based on the trip departure date, regardless of registration date. Participants who register after a payment due date must pay all amounts due as of that date at the time of registration. The Administration Fee applies to every trip registration and is non-refundable except as described under Cancellations & Refunds and Cancelled Trips.

Cruises: Cruises, whether booked as a standalone trip or as an extension, follow the deposit, payment, and cancellation schedules set by the cruise line, which will be provided at the time of booking. The Administration Fee also applies to cruise registrations.

Prices are in US Dollars, and all payments must be made in US Dollars. Payments may be made through our registration platform, WeTravel, by major credit card (Visa, MasterCard, or American Express) or ACH bank transfer. Any service charges for the use of these payment methods are charged by WeTravel, not by Biblical Expeditions. Prior to trip departure, we will provide you with detailed pre-trip information including a packing list, visa information (if required), statement of account, health and safety standards for your trip, vaccination requirements, and travel protection information. Certain trips, including those rated “Strenuous” (Activity Level 4 or 5), require participants to have their physician complete and sign a Physician Certificate. We will provide you with rendezvous instructions and final trip details approximately three weeks prior to trip departure.

Zelle payments (after your deposit has been paid through WeTravel) can be sent to info@biblical-expeditions.com.

WHAT YOUR TRIP INCLUDES

The Land and/or Cruise Cost* for most trips includes Expert leadership, accommodations as noted in the itinerary, field arrangements, most meals, sightseeing as noted in the trip itinerary, group airport transfers, ground transportation and support vehicles, local guides and support staff/porters, tips, entrance fees and permits.

*Note – "Land/Cruise Cost" is defined as including the cost of the trip. Internal airfare, park fees, permits, and taxes may be included in the price or broken out separately. Unless otherwise noted, payment and cancellation policies apply to the total Land/Cruise Cost, inclusive of internal airfare, park fees, permits, single supplements, and taxes, even when broken out separately.

Each trip varies slightly, so please call, and speak with one of our team members or download itineraries at www.biblical-expeditions.com. International airfare, personal items, and all other items not specifically mentioned as included are not included.

SOLO TRAVELERS & SINGLE ROOMS

Accommodations (hotels, tents, and cruise cabins) are based on double occupancy. "Single Participant" spots are limited and are priced to include the supplemental charges hotels apply for a room occupied by one person. If you book your trip after the final payment due date, do not have a designated roommate, and would like one, you will be charged the full Single Participant fee; if a same-gender roommate becomes available before departure, you will be moved to a double room and refunded the difference in cost. Any participant who does not have a designated roommate at the time of departure will automatically be placed in a single room and will owe the Single Participant cost. Please talk to our Client Service Team when booking to discuss your specific options.

CANCELLATIONS & REFUNDS

All cancellations must be made in writing by email to info@biblical-expeditions.com. A cancellation is effective on the date Biblical Expeditions receives your email. Based on Land/Cruise Cost, per person, as of that date, the following refunds will apply (all dates are from departure date unless stated otherwise):

Israel Trips: Israel trips are governed by the applicable Biblical Expeditions Israel Cancellation & Refund Policy (Standard Group Departures or Luxury & Private Departures), which supplements these Terms & Conditions and addresses the registration and payment schedule, participant cancellations, cancellations and postponements by Biblical Expeditions, travel credits, refund processing, and payment disputes for Israel trips. Where these Terms & Conditions conflict with that policy on those subjects, the Israel policy controls. Participants registering for an Israel trip must also sign the Israel Refund & Travel Credit Policy Participant Acknowledgment at registration. All other provisions of these Terms & Conditions continue to apply to Israel trips.

Standard Group Departures – Refunds will be issued on the following basis:

WHEN CANCELLATION IS RECEIVED	REFUND
Within 7 days of registration (if registered before the final payment due date)	Refund of all payments received, minus the $300 Administration Fee
More than 7 days after registration and 100 days or more before departure	Deposit forfeited; any other payments refunded
50–99 days prior to departure	50% of Total Expedition Cost Refunded
49 or fewer days prior to departure	No Refund

Luxury & Private Departures

WHEN CANCELLATION IS RECEIVED	REFUND
Within 7 days of registration (if registered before the final payment due date)	Refund of all payments received, minus the $300 Administration Fee
More than 7 days after registration and 100 days or more before departure	Deposit (20% of Total Expedition Cost) forfeited; any other payments refunded
99 to 61 days prior to trip departure	50% of Total Expedition Cost forfeited; any payments above that amount refunded
60 days or less prior to trip departure	No Refund

The 7-day grace period applies only to registrations made before the final payment due date (105 days before departure for Standard Group Departures; 90 days before departure for Luxury & Private Departures), and for those registrations it takes priority over the rest of the schedule. It does not apply to registrations made on or after the final payment due date; those registrations are subject to the schedule from the date of registration. The Administration Fee is charged only once per registration, regardless of when or why a cancellation occurs; where a deposit or a percentage of the total expedition cost is forfeited, the Administration Fee is included in the forfeited amount and is not deducted again. Luxury & Private departures require a 20% deposit at the time of booking. The Administration Fee is non-refundable except as described in these Terms & Conditions (for example, when a participant cancels within the 7-day grace period and chooses a travel credit, or when Biblical Expeditions cancels or postpones a trip and the participant chooses a travel credit or transfer). Cruise cancellations follow the cruise line's schedule (see Payment Schedule).

Once the trip has commenced, no refunds or credits will be provided for any unused portions (hotel rooms, meals, activities, or trek arrangements) for all participating guests. Extra services, such as transfers, additional nights at hotels, upgrades, extensions, and internal airfare, once purchased are non-refundable.

Cancellation and refund policy applies to the entire Land Cost of the trip, including trip cost, internal airfare, park fees, permits, and taxes. We recommend you purchase an Optional Travel Protection Plan to protect your investment.

Travel credit option: A participant who cancels may choose a Biblical Expeditions travel credit instead of the refund due under the schedule above. A participant who cancels within the 7-day grace period may choose a credit for the full amount paid, including the full deposit, with the Administration Fee waived. After the 7-day grace period, the credit equals the refund amount due under the schedule. No travel credit is available when no refund is due: 49 or fewer days before departure for Standard Group Departures, or 60 or fewer days before departure for Luxury & Private Departures, because by then each participant's spot has been confirmed and included in the group rate with hotels and vendors. Travel credits are subject to the terms described under Cancelled Trips below.

Refund processing: Refunds are processed to the original payment method within 30 days of the cancellation, or, for amounts recovered from suppliers, within 30 days of Biblical Expeditions receiving those funds. If a refund to the original card is not possible because of card refund processing time limits, Biblical Expeditions will mail a refund check to the address provided on your Trip Participant Information Form. Service or processing charges paid through the WeTravel registration system are not refunded by Biblical Expeditions.

CANCELLED TRIPS

Biblical Expeditions reserves the right to cancel any trip due to causes that make the trip unfeasible for us to operate, including force majeure (war, labor strikes, earthquakes, flooding, epidemic, a major world event adversely affecting international travel patterns, etc.), a group not meeting the trip minimum, or the group host cancelling the trip, and will make every effort to inform you as early as possible before departure. The decision to cancel is made by Biblical Expeditions in consultation with its in-country land team and the trip host; Biblical Expeditions has final authority to cancel or operate a trip.

To secure hotels and other services, Biblical Expeditions is often required to pay non-refundable deposits to hotels and suppliers well in advance of departure. These requirements vary by country, season, and supplier contract. If Biblical Expeditions cancels a trip, it will use reasonable efforts to recover payments already made to hotels and other suppliers and will refund the participant's payments, minus the Administration Fee, or issue a travel credit with no Administration Fee deducted, only to the extent those funds have not been paid to suppliers or are actually recovered from them. If suppliers issue credits rather than cash refunds, Biblical Expeditions may issue corresponding Biblical Expeditions travel credits instead of cash refunds. Biblical Expeditions does not guarantee repayment of amounts that suppliers do not return or credit, and its efforts to recover these payments will not include the institution of any legal proceedings. If a trip is cancelled on or before the final payment due date because the group does not meet its trip minimum, no Administration Fee will be deducted. If the group host cancels the trip, the Administration Fee may be deducted from any refund at Biblical Expeditions' discretion. For Luxury & Private Departures, the Administration Fee covers trip planning and is deducted from any refund regardless of when or why the trip is cancelled, including when the group does not meet its minimum or the host cancels; it is waived only when (a) Biblical Expeditions cancels or postpones a trip and the participant chooses a travel credit or transfers to postponed trip dates, or (b) the participant cancels within the 7-day grace period and chooses a travel credit. We will inform participants of the amounts and forms of recovery available after reviewing supplier responses. Because refunds may be limited by non-refundable supplier deposits, Biblical Expeditions strongly recommends that every participant purchase travel insurance.

Travel credits are confirmed by email stating the credit amount, issue date, and expiration date, and are valid for 24 months from the date the trip is cancelled (for a participant cancellation, the date Biblical Expeditions receives the cancellation email) and may be applied to any Biblical Expeditions trip accepting registrations on or before the credit expiration date. The credit holder must register for the replacement trip before the credit expires but need not travel before that date. A credit holder may transfer (gift) a credit to another person by completing and signing a Biblical Expeditions Credit Transfer Form. A credit may be transferred only once, to one other individual. A transferred credit keeps the same amount, expiration date, and terms. Credits cannot be converted into cash under any circumstances. Any price difference for the replacement trip remains payable by the person using the credit. In any event, Biblical Expeditions will provide alternative travel dates for a postponed trip.

Biblical Expeditions is not responsible for additional expenses incurred by trip members in preparing for a cancelled or postponed trip (e.g., non-refundable air tickets, visa fees, inoculations, clothing, equipment, or medical expenses) or for any additional arrangements should the trip member depart prior to the scheduled group departure date. Do not purchase your air tickets before speaking with someone from our Client Relations team, who can be contacted by email at info@biblical-expeditions.com.

Israel trips: all cancellations and postponements of Israel trips by Biblical Expeditions, for any reason, and any resulting refunds or travel credits, are governed by the applicable Israel Cancellation & Refund Policy.

TRANSFERS & NAME CHANGES

Requests to transfer to a different trip or departure, or to substitute another participant, must be made in writing and are subject to Biblical Expeditions' approval, availability, and any charges imposed by airlines, hotels, or other suppliers. Unless Biblical Expeditions agrees otherwise in writing, a transfer is treated as a cancellation of the original registration under the Cancellations & Refunds schedule above.

BAGGAGE

Biblical Expeditions assumes no liability for loss or damage to baggage in transit to and from a Biblical Expeditions trip or while on a Biblical Expeditions trip. We recommend purchasing an optional travel protection plan for such coverage.

PRICE

Prices are per person based on double occupancy, quoted in US dollars, and are set well ahead of the trip departure date. Our prices vary depending on a variety of cost factors, with peak travel dates being the most expensive. Biblical Expeditions will make every effort to avoid future price increases; however, in cases of surcharges or major currency fluctuations, certain circumstances may require a necessary price adjustment. Prices cover land costs only; they do not include airfare, unless stated on trip website. Trip prices include baggage transfers, porterage, and all ground transportation during your trip. Please see the web page for each trip departure for the specific details of all items included in the trip price. All dates, itineraries and prices of Tours are subject to change at any time and the current price will be quoted and confirmed at the time itinerary is booked by group, subject to any surcharges that may be levied in accordance with these Terms.

DELAYS & COST INCREASES

The cost of delays is not included if any trip is delayed due to bad weather, trail conditions, river levels, road conditions, transportation delays, government intervention, quarantine, sickness, border closures or other contingency for which Biblical Expeditions or its third-party operators cannot make provisions. Land/Cruise costs are subject to increase without prior notice, even after you have signed up on the trip. We often publish our prices more than a year in advance. Between that time and the time of the trip's actual departure, we are occasionally faced with significant cost increases that we cannot absorb (e.g., foreign currency fluctuations, fuel surcharges, or increases in cost of services). We regret this situation, and we do everything we can to avoid raising prices, but sometimes it is unavoidable. We will do our best to limit such increases and will notify you before final payment. We will not, however, increase the price after your final payment.

AIRLINES

The airlines are not to be held responsible for any act, omission, or event during the time passengers are not on board their planes or conveyance. The passage contract in use by the airlines concerned, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and such purchasers of these tours and/or passenger. Such conveyance, etc. is subject to the laws of the countries involved. Please read the conditions on the back of your airline ticket.

Airlines used vary in degree of safety and risk. Some foreign air carriers have an unknown safety and maintenance record. Biblical Expeditions is not liable for incidents involving airline safety, risk, delays, etc., or incidents that result in injury, delay, or death.

If Biblical Expeditions has already purchased the participant's airfare or applied a deposit toward the participant's airfare, the below applies to the air purchase only.

The passage contract in use by the airlines when the tickets are issued shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and the passenger. Unless the airlines cancel the flights, the tickets are non-refundable. The participant can use his or her ticket for future air travel within the duration of one year (not necessarily to the country where purchased), but the airline will charge a reissuance fee to exchange his or her existing ticket to do so. The cost to exchange an existing ticket depends on the terms of the pending group contract. Note, that all changes/cancellations by the airlines are the sole responsibility of the passenger once tickets have been issued.

If individuals arrange their own flight bookings, we shall not assume liability for cancellations, arrival delays, or any additional expenses. Similarly, for those who opt to book airfare through our offered group airfare options, we do not accept responsibility for any alterations in independently booked connecting flights leading to missed flights or incurring expenses due to airline delays affecting connecting flights.

MEDICAL & HEALTH

It is vital that persons with medical problems make them known to us well before departure. If a participant is clearly not in the physical, mental, or emotional health to complete the journey, and this impedes the group's ability to proceed with the itinerary, Biblical Expeditions reserves the right to ask the participant to leave the trip at their own expense. Refunds are not given under such circumstances. Biblical Expeditions assumes no liability regarding provision of medical care. You will need to provide us with your medical history and any dietary restrictions as requested in the required documentation. You may be screened for symptoms of communicable illness before or during the trip. If you exhibit symptoms, you may be quarantined from the group or required to evacuate at your own expense. In certain circumstances, an entire trip may be truncated to assure safety for all involved.

If you participate on certain designated trips including those with an Activity Level of "Strenuous" (Level 4 or 5), the Physician Certificate must be signed by your physician. Once you have been confirmed on a trip, normal cancellation fees apply if your doctor does not approve the Physician Certificate. We can send you this form prior to you making your reservation so your doctor can pre-approve you. The State Department (www.travel.state.gov) and the US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (www.cdc.gov) periodically issue statements, advisories, and warnings about risks to travelers. These statements are country specific and contain important information. We strongly urge all participants to review any State Department warnings, alerts, advisories, and destination specific information at www.travel.state.gov as well as specific health information for their destination at www.cdc.gov.

Travel Insurance & Overseas Medical Coverage: Biblical Expeditions does not sell travel insurance. We recommend travel insurance vendors with whom past participants have had positive experiences. Biblical Expeditions is not affiliated with, and is not paid by, these vendors; however, members of our team who are travel agents may receive a commission on policies purchased through their booking links. Travel insurance offered through the WeTravel registration platform is not provided by or connected to Biblical Expeditions. Travel insurance is strongly encouraged but not required, and we highly recommend purchasing it within 14 days of booking your trip for the best coverage options, including coverage for pre-existing conditions. Overseas Medical Coverage is required to travel with Biblical Expeditions, and you must provide a copy of your policy prior to departure. The travel protection policies offered by our recommended vendors include this coverage.

PASSPORTS, VISAS & ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Each participant is responsible for holding a valid passport (valid for at least six months beyond the trip return date, with blank pages as required), and for obtaining any visas, electronic travel authorizations, vaccinations, or other documents required for entry into, transit through, and return from each destination. Participants who are denied boarding or entry, or who cannot travel because of missing or incomplete travel documents, are not entitled to a refund, and any resulting costs are the participant's responsibility.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Biblical Expeditions may take photographs and/or video of its trips and trip participants. By signing these Terms & Conditions, participants consent to being photographed and recorded and grant Biblical Expeditions permission to use those photographs and videos for promotional or commercial purposes without payment of any compensation. Participants may opt out at any time by email to info@biblical-expeditions.com.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF TRIP MEMBERS

Trip members have certain responsibilities to Biblical Expeditions and to other trip members. Trip members are responsible for understanding the conditions stated in the Trip Itinerary, selecting a trip that is appropriate to their interests and abilities, and preparing for the trip by studying the Trip Itinerary and supplemental trip information sent by Biblical Expeditions. Activity levels are clearly stated on each trip website, and participants with any concern about their ability to participate should contact Biblical Expeditions before registering. Apart from the Physician Certificate required for certain trips, Biblical Expeditions does not screen participants for fitness. Biblical Expeditions will review any required Physician Certificate and will base participation on the recommendations given by the participant's doctor. Trip Hosts may review the participants registering for their trip, but Biblical Expeditions has no responsibility to do so. If a participant is clearly not in the physical, mental, or emotional health to complete the journey, and this impedes the group's ability to proceed with the itinerary, Biblical Expeditions reserves the right to ask the participant to leave the trip at their own expense and without right of refund.

TRIP CONFIRMATION & PARTICIPANT MINIMUMS

All Biblical Expeditions trips are considered unconfirmed until the trip's participant minimum is met. Participant minimums are set by trip hosts and clearly stated on trip websites. Registration deadlines are safeguards to make sure groups meet this minimum before major non-refundable group deposits are made, subject to the deposit schedules set by hotels and cruise lines.

To ensure a trip reaches the required number of participants and proceeds as planned, it is important to consider the following:

1. Individuals and groups should register as soon as possible to be counted toward the required minimum number of participants.
2. Participants are advised not to make any personal travel arrangements (such as booking flights or additional accommodations) until the trip is confirmed. The Biblical Expeditions team will communicate when it is appropriate to book airfare for the trip once your registration is complete.

If a participant wishes to purchase airline tickets, book additional hotels, or make other personal travel plans before the trip is confirmed, they should consult Biblical Expeditions beforehand.

Biblical Expeditions remains transparent with deposit deadlines and hotel cancellation policies but cannot be held responsible for any personal travel arrangements made outside the program's administration.

CODE OF CONDUCT

A Biblical Expeditions adventure is the ideal balance of adrenaline and fun. Creating an enjoyable trip for everyone means that safety is as important as enjoyment, and we understand that everyone's experience is influenced by the behavior of every guest and staff member. Biblical Expeditions is committed to crafting a respectful, inclusive, and enjoyable experience for all our guests, reinforced by our Code of Conduct.

Why have a Code of Conduct?

Biblical Expeditions is proud of our reputation as a leader in innovative, authentic adventure travel. We're a community of diverse people brought together by a respect for—and enthusiastic belief in—exploration of the lands of the Bible while building meaningful relationships with local communities, directly benefiting the people and places we visit.

Travel is About Respecting People, Places, and Cultures

We ask that guests and staff alike treat each other with dignity, integrity, and respect.

Respectful behavior includes, and is not limited to:

- Honoring each guest's individuality, including abilities, age, level of education, ethnicity, family status, immigration status, political beliefs, national origin, race, size, social and economic class, and/or veteran status.
- Drawing interpersonal boundaries and respecting others' boundaries, including asking permission to take photos/videos of others, and asking permission to post them on social media.
- Giving each other space in private moments.
- Speaking with a guide if offensive behavior occurs.

Please refrain from disrespectful behavior, which includes, and is not limited to:

- Prohibited conduct such as:
  - sexual solicitation;
  - profane, obscene, or abusive language or behavior;
  - racial, ethnic, gender, or other derogatory language relating to identity; and/or
  - harassment, bullying, or discrimination.

- Abusing alcohol and/or drugs, or exposing other participants to intoxicants. Please note that drugs, including marijuana, are prohibited in many countries.

Health and Safety is Paramount

Practice good health & hygiene: Guests and staff are expected to practice good health and hygiene routines individually and collectively. If a guest is clearly not in the physical, mental, or emotional health to complete the journey, and this impedes the group's ability to proceed with the itinerary, Biblical Expeditions reserves the right to ask that guest to leave the trip at their own expense and will assist the guest in receiving medical and other help as appropriate.

Some Biblical Expeditions trips travel through remote locations where environmental factors can be a challenge to health and safety and medical resources are very limited. It is not uncommon to become dehydrated in arid and hot conditions or while exerting oneself, which amplifies the effects of alcohol.

Guests should immediately report any concerns about safety, security, or unsafe or illegal behavior to their guides. Failure to immediately report these concerns may delay our ability to respond to the situation.

Consequences

If a guest fails to adhere to this policy or we determine, at our discretion, that there is a concern for the safety, security, or well-being of others, Biblical Expeditions may remove the guest from a trip immediately. Biblical Expeditions may also report incidents to local authorities and seek other legal action where appropriate. Any guest who is abusive or disrespectful to other trip participants, guides, or others encountered during a trip, or who otherwise detracts from the enjoyment of the trip by others, is subject to removal without refund, at the guest's own cost for accommodations and transportation home.

No refunds will be issued if you are removed from a tour because of a violation of this Code of Conduct.

DISCLAIMER OF RESPONSIBILITY

Biblical Expeditions is not a travel agency and is only acting as an intermediary for the suppliers identified on this, or any accompanying documents, in selling services, or in accepting reservations or bookings for services which are not directly supplied by itself (such as air carriage, hotel accommodations, ground transportation, meals, etc.).

You will hold as harmless Biblical Expeditions for breach of contract or any intentional or careless actions or omissions on the part of such suppliers, which may result in any loss, damage, delay, injury, or increase in program fees to any traveler, but reserve all rights against the suppliers. Biblical Expeditions shall not be responsible for any cancellations, injuries, damages, or losses caused to any traveler in connection with war, terrorist activities, or any other actions, omissions, or conditions outside its control, but shall work to provide a comparable experience; however, there are circumstances in which certain aspects of the trip, such as hotels, hosts, excursions, or days, may differ. By embarking upon the trip, the traveler voluntarily assumes all personal and financial risks involved with such travel, whether expected or unexpected. Travelers are hereby warned of such risk and are advised to obtain appropriate insurance coverage against such risks.

Miscellaneous Matters: I understand that, as described under Photography above, by signing these Terms & Conditions I consent to Biblical Expeditions LLC taking photographic or film records of any of its trips and it may use any such photographic or film records for promotional and/or commercial purposes, as well as approve such use by third parties with whom Biblical Expeditions LLC may engage in joint marketing, without any remuneration to me. I agree to follow all written and verbal rules of safety presented to me by Biblical Expeditions LLC and the independent contractors it employs. I understand that Biblical Expeditions LLC reserves the right to refuse as a trip participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person who is clearly not in the physical, mental, or emotional health to complete the journey where this impedes the group's ability to proceed with the itinerary, or who is abusive or disrespectful to other trip participants, guides or third parties, or who it determines to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others.

Biblical Expeditions LLC reserves the right to change hotels or other features of the trip's itinerary if Biblical Expeditions LLC believes it will enhance the safety, comfort or enjoyment of the trip comparable to agreed upon facilities at time of accepted contract with group host.

ASSUMPTION OF RISK

I am aware that adventure travel such as I am undertaking involves hazardous activities, some in remote areas of the world, with a risk of illness, injury or death which may be caused by forces of nature, animals, insects or flora, the negligence of other persons and companies known or unknown, or of willful or criminal conduct of third parties. I am aware that weather conditions may be severe, adverse and/or unpleasant. I am also aware that medical services or facilities may not be readily available or accessible or consistent with standards in the United States during some or all the time during which I am participating on the trip and that when available may not be of the quality which exists in the United States. In order to partake of the enjoyment and excitement of this adventure travel trip I am willing to accept the risks and uncertainty involved as being an integral part of my adventure. I hereby accept and assume full responsibility for any and all risks of illness, injury or death other than caused by and of the negligence of Biblical Expeditions LLC and agree to hold harmless and release Biblical Expeditions LLC from claims of third-party negligence.

I am aware that while on or traveling to or from my trip, I might be exposed to viruses and diseases from other people, animals, or objects. I assume all risk of any such contacts, including sickness, incapacity or death and agree to hold harmless Biblical Expeditions from any such developments. In addition, I recognize that the U.S. Department of State as well as the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention may have warnings concerning same. Voluntary Participation. I acknowledge that I have voluntarily applied to participate on the trip designated in my registration (or a trip which I may change to) and that I have read the description of the trip as it appears in the current Biblical Expeditions website and supplements or trip materials relating to the trip, together with all information contained in my registration. I am voluntarily participating in this trip with knowledge of the hazards involved.

Binding Arbitration. I agree that any dispute concerning, relating, or referring to this Agreement, the trip materials or any other literature concerning my trip, or the trip itself, shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C.1-16 pursuant to the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc. (JAMS). Such proceedings will be governed by the substantive law of Delaware, with consideration of Delaware's Rapid Arbitration Act, but not its procedural law, which will be governed by the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures of JAMS. Such hearings can also be conducted remotely by phone or other electronic means. The arbitrator and not any federal, state, or local court or agency shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. Please understand that by agreeing to these terms and conditions, you (and we) are waiving our right to a trial by jury. Under no circumstances can participant be part of a class or other joint action.

Payment Disputes & Chargebacks. I understand that payments I authorize are payments for travel services and related arrangements, and that refunds, credits, and fees are governed by these Terms & Conditions. I agree to contact Biblical Expeditions first with any payment, refund, or credit concern so it can be reviewed and resolved, and to provide truthful and accurate information in any dispute with my bank, card issuer, or payment processor. Biblical Expeditions may provide this signed agreement, payment records, and related communications in response to any dispute. Nothing in this Agreement limits my right to dispute an unauthorized charge or billing error under applicable law or payment-card network rules.

Severability & Entire Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect. This Agreement, together with the trip itinerary and any trip-specific written policy provided at registration (such as the Israel Cancellation & Refund Policy), constitutes the entire agreement between me and Biblical Expeditions LLC regarding my trip and supersedes any prior oral or written statements.

PARTICIPANTS MUST ALSO AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING

By signing electronically, I hereby acknowledge that the information I have provided in this form is complete and accurate and any typographical errors will not render the document void. Furthermore, I acknowledge that I have carefully read this agreement including the Release from Liability, Assumption of Risk, and Binding Arbitration as well as the Payment Schedule, Cancellations & Refunds, and Code of Conduct sections.

PART 2

Israel Cancellation & Refund Policy: Luxury & Private Departures

Effective October 1, 2026

Standalone Israel-specific supplement to the Biblical Expeditions Participant Terms & Conditions. This policy applies to luxury and private Israel departures registered on or after October 1, 2026, and governs the Israel-specific subjects below. All other Participant Terms & Conditions remain in effect. Where the two documents conflict on the subjects below, this policy controls, subject to applicable law.

1. REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT SCHEDULE

PAYMENT DUE	AMOUNT
At registration	Deposit of 20% of the total expedition cost (includes the $300 Administration Fee)
180 days before departure	50% of the total expedition cost
90 days before departure (final-payment deadline)	Remaining balance

The deposit includes the $300 per-person Administration Fee, which covers the planning of luxury and private trips and is deducted from any refund, regardless of when or why a trip is cancelled. The Administration Fee is waived only when (a) Biblical Expeditions cancels or postpones a trip and the participant chooses a travel credit or transfers to postponed trip dates, or (b) the participant cancels within the 7-day grace period and chooses a travel credit.

Payment due dates are based on the departure date, regardless of registration date. A participant who registers after a payment due date must pay all amounts due as of that date at the time of registration.

The $300 Administration Fee is charged only once per registration, regardless of when or why a cancellation occurs, and is never deducted more than once.

2. PARTICIPANT-INITIATED CANCELLATION

IF YOU CANCEL…	YOU GET BACK
Within 7 days of registering (only if you registered more than 90 days before departure)	All payments, minus the $300 Administration Fee
More than 7 days after registering, and 100 or more days before departure	All payments except the 20% deposit
61–99 days before departure	Any payments above 50% of the total trip cost
60 days or fewer before departure	No refund

Instead of a refund, you may choose a Biblical Expeditions travel credit for the same amount (within the 7-day grace period, the credit is for all payments with the Administration Fee waived); see Section 6. No credit is available when no refund is due. The $300 Administration Fee is part of the deposit and is never deducted a second time. The 7-day grace period does not apply to registrations made 90 days or fewer before departure; those registrations follow the schedule above from the date of registration.

A participant who elects to cancel for any reason, including personal concerns about travel advisories, news reports, war or regional instability while Biblical Expeditions continues to operate the trip, is subject to the participant cancellation schedule above. A participant's individual decision not to travel is not a cancellation by Biblical Expeditions.

Cancellations must be submitted in writing by email to info@biblical-expeditions.com. A cancellation is effective on the date Biblical Expeditions receives the email.

3. CANCELLATION BY BIBLICAL EXPEDITIONS MORE THAN 105 DAYS BEFORE DEPARTURE

Any decision to cancel or postpone an Israel trip is made by Biblical Expeditions in consultation with its in-country land team and the trip host; Biblical Expeditions has final authority to cancel, postpone or operate the trip.

If Biblical Expeditions cancels the Israel trip more than 105 days before departure because war, armed conflict, force majeure or material safety/security conditions make it impossible to operate the trip safely as scheduled, Biblical Expeditions will refund all payments received, minus the $300 Administration Fee. If the trip is cancelled more than 105 days before departure because the group does not meet its trip minimum, Biblical Expeditions will refund all payments received, minus the $300 Administration Fee.

Instead of a refund, the participant may choose a Biblical Expeditions travel credit for all payments received, with the Administration Fee waived. Travel credits are subject to Section 6.

4. CANCELLATION BY BIBLICAL EXPEDITIONS 105 DAYS OR LESS BEFORE DEPARTURE (WAR, FORCE MAJEURE OR SAFETY)

If Biblical Expeditions cancels the Israel trip 105 days or less before departure because war, armed conflict, force majeure or material safety/security conditions make it impossible to operate the trip safely as scheduled, it will make reasonable efforts to recover payments made to hotels and vendors, and participants will receive one of the following:

- Full recovery: if Biblical Expeditions recovers 100% of the payments made to hotels and vendors for the trip, participants will receive a refund of all payments received, minus the $300 Administration Fee.
- Partial or no recovery: if Biblical Expeditions is not able to recover 100% of the payments made to hotels and vendors, participants will receive a Biblical Expeditions travel credit for all payments received, with the Administration Fee waived. The credit is valid for 24 months from the trip cancellation date and is subject to Section 6.
- Postponement: if the trip host works with Biblical Expeditions to postpone the trip to later dates, participants may transfer their registration to the new trip dates as described in Section 7.

Biblical Expeditions will inform participants which option applies after reviewing hotel and vendor responses. Because refunds for cancellations 105 days or less before departure depend on recovery from hotels and vendors, Biblical Expeditions strongly recommends that every participant purchase travel insurance.

5. CANCELLATION FOR ANY OTHER REASON (INCLUDING HOST CANCELLATION)

If an Israel trip is cancelled more than 105 days before departure for any reason not described in Section 3, including when the group host cancels the trip, Biblical Expeditions will refund all payments received. The $300 Administration Fee is deducted from any refund.

If an Israel trip is cancelled 105 days or less before departure for any reason not described in Section 4, including when the group host cancels the trip or the group does not meet its trip minimum, participants will receive a refund, travel credit or transfer on the same basis as Section 4 (full recovery, partial or no recovery, or postponement). The $300 Administration Fee is deducted once from any refund and is never deducted from a travel credit or transfer.

6. BIBLICAL EXPEDITIONS TRAVEL CREDITS

A Biblical Expeditions travel credit may be issued (a) when Biblical Expeditions cancels or postpones a trip, as described in Sections 3, 4, 5 and 7, or (b) when a participant cancels and chooses to keep a credit on file instead of receiving a refund. A participant who cancels within the 7-day grace period may choose a travel credit for the full amount paid, including the full deposit, with the Administration Fee waived. A participant who cancels later may choose, instead of the refund due under the cancellation schedule in Section 2, a travel credit equal to that refund amount. No travel credit is available for a participant cancellation when no refund is due under Section 2.

Travel credits are administered by Biblical Expeditions, not by the hotels or other suppliers, and are confirmed to the participant by email stating the credit amount, issue date and expiration date. Credits are valid for 24 months from the trip cancellation date (for a participant cancellation, the date Biblical Expeditions receives the cancellation email) and may be applied to any Biblical Expeditions trip accepting registrations on or before the credit expiration date. The credit holder must register for the replacement trip before the credit expires but need not travel before that date.

A credit holder may transfer (gift) a credit to another person by completing and signing a Biblical Expeditions Credit Transfer Form. A credit may be transferred only once, to one other individual. A transferred credit keeps the same amount, expiration date and terms. Credits cannot be converted into cash under any circumstances. Any price difference for the replacement trip remains payable by the person using the credit.

7. POSTPONEMENT BY BIBLICAL EXPEDITIONS

If the trip host works with Biblical Expeditions to postpone an Israel trip to later dates, each participant may transfer their registration to the new trip dates. No Administration Fee is deducted or charged again, and all payments received, including the Administration Fee, are applied toward the new trip dates. Any difference in the price of the rescheduled trip remains payable by the participant. Biblical Expeditions will work to provide a comparable experience on the rescheduled dates; however, certain aspects of the trip, such as hotels, hosts, excursions, or days, may differ.

A participant who does not transfer to the new trip dates is treated as if Biblical Expeditions cancelled the trip on the date the postponement is announced, under Section 3 (more than 105 days before departure) or Section 4 (105 days or less before departure).

8. REFUND PROCESSING

Refunds are processed to the original payment method within 30 days of the cancellation, or, for amounts recovered from suppliers, within 30 days of Biblical Expeditions receiving those funds. If a refund to the original card is not possible because of card refund processing time limits, Biblical Expeditions will mail a refund check to the address provided on the participant's Trip Participant Information Form. Service or processing charges paid through the WeTravel registration system are not refunded by Biblical Expeditions.

9. INDEPENDENTLY PURCHASED TRAVEL AND INSURANCE

This policy covers eligible trip payments made to Biblical Expeditions. It does not promise reimbursement for independently purchased airfare, airline upgrades, extra hotel nights, insurance premiums or other third-party purchases. Because refunds may be limited by non-refundable supplier deposits, Biblical Expeditions strongly recommends that every participant purchase travel insurance. Participants should review their own travel insurance policy carefully; coverage for war, conflict, cancellation, postponement or travel advisories may be excluded or limited. Overseas medical coverage requirements in the Participant Terms & Conditions remain in effect.

10. PAYMENT AUTHORIZATION, DISPUTES AND CHARGEBACKS

By registering and paying, the participant acknowledges that the charges they authorize are payments for travel services and related arrangements, that the $300 Administration Fee is non-refundable except as described in this policy, and that the participant has been provided the applicable cancellation, refund and credit terms. The participant understands that a travel credit issued in accordance with these terms does not, by itself, mean that the original charge was unauthorized or fraudulent.

Participants are encouraged to contact Biblical Expeditions promptly with payment, refund or credit concerns so the company can review the matter and attempt to resolve it. Participants agree to provide truthful and accurate information in any dispute or chargeback. Biblical Expeditions may provide the signed policy and acknowledgment, payment authorization, communications, supplier recovery information and credit records to a bank, card issuer, payment processor or other appropriate dispute reviewer. Nothing in this policy waives or restricts a participant's rights under applicable law or payment-card network rules, including the right to dispute an unauthorized charge, a billing error or a refund or service not provided as required.

11. PARTICIPANT ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I acknowledge that I have read and understand this Israel Cancellation & Refund Policy – Luxury & Private Departures, including the distinction between participant-initiated cancellation, cancellation by Biblical Expeditions, and postponement; the $300 per-person Administration Fee and when it is non-refundable; the possibility of partial supplier recovery; and the terms and expiration of Biblical Expeditions travel credits. I understand that this policy supplements, rather than replaces, the Biblical Expeditions Participant Terms & Conditions. I am signing electronically in the Biblical Expeditions registration platform (WeTravel) by typing my full name and checking the agreement box; my electronic signature has the same force and effect as my handwritten signature, and the date and time of signing are recorded automatically.

PART 3

Israel Refund & Travel Credit Policy Participant Acknowledgment

Effective October 1, 2026

This acknowledgment supplements the Israel Cancellation & Refund Policy applicable to my registered expedition and the Biblical Expeditions Participant Terms & Conditions. It does not replace or modify those policies.

1. REVIEW AND ACCEPTANCE

I confirm that I have received or been given access to the applicable Israel Cancellation & Refund Policy (Standard Group Departures or Luxury & Private Departures) before signing this acknowledgment. I have read and understand its provisions concerning the Administration Fee (including when it is non-refundable) and deposits, participant-initiated cancellations, cancellations or postponements by Biblical Expeditions, supplier refunds, partial recovery of funds, and the issuance, use, and expiration of travel credits.

2. AUTHORIZED PAYMENT AND CREDIT TERMS

I confirm that payments I personally authorize for my expedition are intentional payments for travel services and related arrangements. I understand that, depending on the circumstances and the applicable policy, I may be entitled to a refund, a partial refund, or a Biblical Expeditions travel credit rather than a cash refund. Receipt of a credit in accordance with the applicable policy does not, by itself, make an authorized payment fraudulent or unauthorized.

3. ACCURATE PAYMENT DISPUTES

I agree not to knowingly submit or support a false or misleading claim to my bank, card issuer, or payment processor stating that a payment I authorized was fraudulent or unauthorized. I also agree not to knowingly misrepresent the disclosed cancellation or travel credit terms, the status of a refund or credit, or the services provided when raising a payment dispute. I understand that Biblical Expeditions may provide this signed acknowledgment, the applicable policies, registration and payment records, and relevant refund or credit records in response to a dispute.

4. QUESTIONS AND PRESERVED RIGHTS

I am encouraged to contact Biblical Expeditions promptly with questions or concerns about a payment, refund, or credit so the company can review them. Nothing in this acknowledgment prevents me from contacting my bank or card issuer, disputing a genuinely unauthorized transaction or qualifying billing error, or exercising any rights available under applicable law or payment-network rules.

By signing electronically, I confirm that I understand and agree to the acknowledgments above. I am signing in the Biblical Expeditions registration platform (WeTravel) by typing my full name and checking the agreement box; my electronic signature has the same force and effect as my handwritten signature, and the date and time of signing are recorded automatically.
